Within the L21 office we are going green. Although it is not possible to have a completely paperless office, we have begun the process of converting in-office documents to digital format.

What this means to you is this: all meeting notices, periodic updates, upcoming functions, events or action alerts will be either posted online at: local21.ca on the front page or listed under Menu / Calendar or provided to you via your personal email addresses, which we ask that you kindly provide us with at your earliest opportunity.

You are requested to visit the website regularly as well as monitoring your email in order to ensure that you are aware of any and all of the above-mentioned notifications.

Some advantages to this direction are: better office organization, cost effective, better service to our members, beneficial to the environment.

Please provide us with your personal email address by sending it to L21's public relations/communications address at: local21@sasktel.net

Your privacy is important to us / confidentially will be respected and protected.
